

Give us a break!! There is a reason why people pay for these subscription services such as XM Radio -- they are a better medium -- proven by the fact that subscribers choose to pay rather than recieve (maybe) their traffic and weather FREE from other local media.

Doesn't the FCC already impose too many edicts to us?

Spend your time on something that will truly benefit society instead of letting the special interests conspire and goade you into lining their pockets.